Day Trips: January-March 2018

Folger Shakespeare Library Tour

The Folger Shakespeare Library (Washington, DC) is home to the world's largest Shakespeare collection including one of the Folger's 82 First Folios. The Founders' Room tells the story of Henry Clay Folger and Emily Jordan Folger. We'll tour the Folger's Elizabethan Theatre, as well as the current exhibition in the Great Hall. Our tour is at noon so you'll have approximately an hour free time to grab a bite or eat the lunch you brought. We will not be stopping for lunch after the tour. <https://www.folger.edu/visit>

The Tea Cart, a British Tea Room

Established in 2014, The Tea Cart (Berryville, VA) is a traditional British tearoom serving fine English fare and curated loose teas. The Tea Cart opened its doors to offer a tranquil, one-of-a-kind experience for those looking for an escape from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. We'll enjoy the Royal Ascot Tea: Chef's choice of soup and savory, finger sandwiches served on a three-tier tray, warm scones with Devonshire cream and preserves, fine selection of sweets, and a bottomless pot of loose leaf tea of your choice.

Tour of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts

The Kennedy Center tour (Washington, DC) highlights the historic events that led up to the establishment of the national cultural center that is also our nation's living memorial to President John F. Kennedy. We'll tour the halls and theaters as we learn about the works of art and gifts given to the Center, such as Robert Berks's bust of President Kennedy, Willy Weber's Apollo X, and the stunning Israeli Lounge. This is a tour of the facility; we will not be seeing a show. Lunch will be at a local restaurant.

Montpelier Mansion (Laurel)

In 1781, Ann Ridgely and Thomas Snowden commissioned the building of Montpelier, a five-part home (Laurel, MD). Situated upon a high knoll above the Patuxent River, Montpelier is one of the finest examples of 18th century Georgian architecture in the state. Large trees and boxwood grace the landscape of this National historic landmark. There is also an 18th century summer house. In the early 1900's, the kitchen and servants' quarter's extension off the south wing were added, as was the seven-stall garage, known as the carriage house. This is a different mansion than James Madison's Montpelier located in VA. Lunch will be a local restaurant.
